

Position Statements on Pre-Participation Physical Evaluation in Marathon (2013):

1. Regular running is good for our cardiovascular and overall health
2. Competitive long distance running, like marathon, demands the individual to have proper training, good preparation and a high degree of cardiovascular fitness.
3. All runners have the responsibilities to consult their physicians to ensure that they are medically fit to run the Marathon.